Live the Fantasy on Nintendo GameCube

The Final Fantasy series explodes onto Nintendo GameCube with action-packed multiplayer gameplay and an epic storyline seeped in Final Fantasy style and lore. Final Fantasy: Crystal Chronicles tells the tale of a land covered in poisonous miasma where people depend on precious crystals to stay alive. Using Game Boy Advance systems as controllers, four players can team up to solve puzzles, defeat enemies and survive in a land teeming with danger. This game is a must-play for any Final Fantasy fan!

Finally -- Multiplayer Final Fantasy! Crystal Chronicles is the first multiplayer Final Fantasy game available on home consoles in the United States

Using the Game Boy Advance as a controller, players are able to control their characters on-screen, while receiving unique information on the Game Boy Advance screen which other players cannot see.

Fight through an epic role-playing game with the story and graphic quality players have come to expect from the Final Fantasy series!

Use magic spells and special attacks to combat amazing enemies in massive real-time battles!
